The Campbell Program

Associate of Arts in General Education

The choice of a major can be difficult for many students. The Associate of Art program offers you the opportunity to take a variety of classes while deciding which Bachelors degree best fits your needs. This two year degree prepares students with the basic core courses of a liberal arts education.

The AA degree allows working adults to more rapidly become a college graduate. This step can lead to better employment opportunities as you continue toward your Bachelors degree. This degree also meets the military's goals for education for enlisted personnel.

The Extended Campus Approach

Campbell University understands that adult learners seek a balance between education, career, family and military responsibilities. The average Extended Campus student will complete 24-30 semester hours per year while attending classes only two nights per week.

Classes are scheduled during the evenings, at lunch, and on Saturday. Weekday classes meet two nights per week with two class periods each night. Campbell's Office of Distance Education offers internet courses each term which provide adult learners additional flexibility in degree completion. Additionally, most campuses have Blended courses, which meet in the classroom one night per week and have an internet component.

Students normally enroll in two classes (six semester hours) during each of the five terms offered annually. This full time schedule qualifies students for financial aid and/or VA education entitlements.

Campbell University believes that no student should be denied a college education for financial reasons. Low tuition rates at the extended campuses reflect this progressive philosophy. All students should see the financial aid representative for qualifying programs.

About Campbell University

Founded in 1887, Campbell University is located in Buies Creek, North Carolina. The largest of the five Baptist colleges, Campbell is also the second largest private university in the state. The University is a member of the Servicemembers Opportunity College and participates fully in SOCAD, SOCMAR and SOCNAV, which guarantee the transferability of selected credits.
